THE FUTURE OF THE NEGRO IN THE REPUBLICAN PARTY.

"That 'Man' is the architect of his own fortune" is as true in the realm of politics as it is in all other departments of human endeavor. To be able to determine the part which the Negro will play in the future activities of the Republican party; it will be necessary to draw aside the curtain of the past and take a peep at his record in the days gone by. Almost immediately after the Emancipation the Negro was given the Right of Franchise, and just how sacred he kept this God-given right, let the political historian tell.

The Period of the Reconstruction. Most of the political writers of today hold to the opinion that this was a period of "Destruction" instead of "Construction" in as much as it was during this period that the Negro's "Star of hope" shone brightest and, in turn, grew darkest. His failure to catch the proper vision of his responsibilities of citizenship and of political leadership, contributed, largely, to the bringing into existence, those damnable laws that have ever since blocked his "pathway" to success and destroyed his political influence for more than a generation. Political "Greed," political "Graft," political "Jealousies," political "Assassination," political "Ignorance," lack of political "Leadership," lack of "Race Loyalty," are just a few of the agencies that helped to "Wreck" the political fortunes of our past, and without their elimination, will "Wreck" our fortunes of the future. The sweeping Victory of November second has revived the drooping spirits of the American Negro, and he sees, in the distance, the dawning of a new day. A day, which he can, by methods of "Right Living," "Honesty," by "Frugality," by "Loyalty," by "Industry," by "Love for his People," make a day of "Joy, Happiness, and Prosperity," for the millions yet unborn; and this, too, under the glorious Banner of the Grand Old Republican Party. Harding carries in his hand a Beacon of Hope and of Unity, directing us to those higher planes of Citizenship and of Duty where "Race-hatred" and "Race Discrimination" will become a thing of the past and all worthy men will be given a chance to back in the Sunlight of Freedom and of Opportunity. Let's Follow Him.

STATE TEACHERS' MEETING.

Hundreds of Colored teachers are in the City this week attending a meeting of the State Teachers' Association which is holding the largest session in its history in this City. Many prominent educators are among the number and the daily programs have been highly interesting. Prof. E. G. Williams of Booneville is President; A. C. MacIn of Hannibal is Secretary. At the opening Session Thursday held in the Paseo Y. M. C. A., Prof. G. N. Grisham delivered the address of welcome; the response was by Prof. Frank L. Williams of the Sumner High School, St. Louis, after which the President gave his annual address. On Friday evening an informal reception was held which was largely attended by both citizens and visitors.

"IN THE DAYS OF PLENTY PREPARE FOR HARD TIMES."—Ailed Charities.

Betty & Sam's Little Corner

THEY SAY

—That the old fashioned family who asked all their friends to Sunday dinner has died out. Yes indeed.

—That the buffet flats make their own whiskey. Is that so? We don't know, do you?

—That the worst kind of scamp is the fellow who secretly abuses his friends.

—That reliability is an admirable trait and it is surely needed in this race of ours.

—That when a man loses a good wife, he looks like he has passed through a flint mill.

—That whenever you see a fellow exceedingly happy and thinks the world is his friend, he has either inherited something or found his wife's pocket book.

—That two certain well known and very popular married women have ceased to be friends all because of an argument in which one said: "Oh you ain't so much; you wouldn't be a thing if my husband hadn't helped your husband." Oh my, that's too bad.

—That a well known business man who has had a world of business in another man's home for the past six months was seen hurrying down the street about ten o'clock the other evening with his coat and shirt in his hand. Wonder what was the trouble.

—That a certain man who has been leaving his wife every spring and coming back to her every winter, tried the same thing recently but this time when he attempted to use his key in the door, he found another lock on the door; and when he rang the door bell another man came to the door and informed him that his thought-to-be wife had a divorce and had married him. Poh fellow.

—Call Fairfax 350 or Fairfax 4422.

A GROWING ENTERPRISE.

No more rapidly growing enterprise can be found in the West than the Dennis B. Owens Music Co., located at 312 East 12th street, Kansas City, Mo. Orders reach them constantly for large orders of music rolls. Only last week the Pace & Handy Music Co. of New York City, placed an order with this firm for $500.00 in music rolls. The President, Mr. Dennis B. Owens is an energetic, intelligent and far sighted young man and deserves the patronage of everyone in need of music rolls.

St. Stephen's Baptist church sent the Kansas City Sun a generous contribution for its accuracy in publishing the church's notes each week. The Sun deeply appreciates this contribution and thanks Rev. Hurse and the members of his congregation for their kindness and thoughtfulness.
